Las Vegas was built on gambling back in 1931. Year after year, it continued to reinvent itself until it became “the entertainment capital of the world,” the “party capital of the world,” and the “nightclub capital of the world.” Las Vegas is a city that will never stop reinventing itself. With the resurgence of Downtown Las Vegas, new restaurants, bars, and clubs are opening at a rapid pace. The latest place to join in the revitalization is 700 Fremont. Occupying the space formerly known as Turmeric, this new hybrid hotspot is in a prime location situated in the heart of Downtown. It features bars, a restaurant with four unique food concepts, and a high-energy rooftop nightclub with DJs spinning called Zoo, all in one building covered in colorful street art. The grand opening is set for May 4th. Hours of operation are 11 AM – 3 AM daily, and Zoo is open Thursday through Sunday from 9 PM – 3 AM. For anyone who likes to drink, dance, and dine Downtown, 700 Fremont is your place to party!

Las Vegas never stops reinventing itself with new and exciting attractions and activities to keep locals entertained, lure tourists, and keep them coming back. That is precisely what happened when Area 15 burst onto the scene. Located one mile from the Strip, Area 15 is the hottest attraction in the City.

This 200,000 square foot immersive playground is fun for people of all ages. It offers different experiences from ax throwing, getting your thoughts read at Brainstorm, and a golf or flight simulator to zipline racing, a sojourn through a bamboo volcano or a museum of light and sound, an emporium filled with pinball/arcade machines and pool tables, and many more can't miss activities.

An ultra-lounge is a venue between a bar and a nightclub, but more upscale, fancy, and intimate than a typical bar and smaller and more laidback than a full-fledged nightclub. Azilo Ultra Lounge is such a place. Located at the reimagined Sahara Hotel just minutes from the Las Vegas Strip, Azilo Ultra Lounge is the newest nightlife destination to hit Las Vegas in 2022. Not to be confused with its counterpart, Azilo Ultra Pool, this new ultra-lounge is the epitome of class and sophistication.

It offers guests a sexy lounge atmosphere with luscious libations, reasonably priced bottle service, and an impressive lineup of live entertainment. "The Azilo Ultra Lounge is a game-changer in the Sin City nightlife scene and is not to be missed!"

Known as the "locals bar," yet enjoyed by tourists alike, Blue Martini is an upscale venue conveniently located in Town Square on the south end of the Las Vegas Strip – a 93-acre open-air shopping, dining, and entertainment complex. Offering Happy Hour five days a week, live entertainment, dancing, and themed events such as "Ladies Night" and "Industry Night" – there's always a party atmosphere at Blue Martini. Dine inside, outside, or enjoy a full bar complete with handcrafted cocktails and more than 50 specialty martinis created by the talented mixologists in the VIP lounge. Fresh from the kitchen is a global gourmet tapas menu and daily specials. The vibe is modern and sophisticated with a relaxed feel and attracts a young, hip crowd. Casual nightclub attire is required, so dress to impress! Blue Martini is an ideal alternative to the over-crowded, ear-deafening mega-clubs.

Commonwealth is more than just a run-of-the-mill bar in Downtown Las Vegas. It's a 6,000 sq. ft. beautiful, classy multi-level bar with a vibrant social scene and a rooftop patio complete with a bar, dance floor, incredible music, and unmatched city views that appeal to locals and tourists. This lively hotspot is a clubbing, dancing, drinking, and hanging with friends destination that houses a clandestine speakeasy called The Laundry Room with a capacity of 22 guests. Commonwealth offers the best of both worlds – the main room on the first level that opens at 7 PM for guests who want to enjoy cocktails and conversations, and the rooftop opens at 10 PM for all the party people.

Billing themselves as “the most famous bar on the planet,” Coyote Ugly is an over-the-top experience. Based on the original Coyote Ugly bar in New York City, it only stands to reason why the Vegas location opened in the New York-New York Hotel & Casino. Twenty years later, it’s still rocking.

Could the draw be a bunch of sexy, highly energetic female bartenders in midriff tops and cowboy boots dancing on the bar and pouring shots into the mouths of thirsty customers just like in the movie. Coyote Ugly is a non-stop party, and it is a hotspot for bachelor/bachelorette and birthday celebrations. The vibe is rowdy, festive, fun. Be sure to stop by this lively bar and get your “ugly on.”

Brought to you by the owners of Park on Fremont and nightlife-focused venues Commonwealth, The Laundry Room, and Lucky Day Tequila & Mezcal House, Corner Bar Management brings yet another venue to Downtown Las Vegas – Discopussy. This 6,500 sq ft. dance haven specializes in authentic mainline house and techno music that can be heard over a killer sound system. Discopussy boasts an extraordinary one-of-a-kind, custom-built type of chandelier called "disco octopus." This monster has eight tentacles, a disco ball for a head, and 10,000 laser-cut components illuminated by 5,000 light-emitting diodes that move stealthily across the entire ceiling above the dance floor. Here you will find a full-service bar with beers, wines, and handcrafted cocktails, and for the full VIP treatment, bottle service is available.

Much like its beachy sibling, Drai's Nightclub is built on the fundamental principles of sophistication, innovation, and authenticity. Located on the 11th story capstone of the stylish Cromwell hotel, this venue offers views of the entire Strip while you dance all night.

Getting its moniker from the property developer of the same namesake, Victor Drai created Drai's to be a multi-sensory experience inside of a 65,000 square foot venue: audially, the club's soundtrack is provided by a long-list of dance music acts and award-winning musicians. With impressive line-ups, light shows, and sound, it's no wonder Drai's has quickly become one of the most popular nightclubs in Vegas.

AFTERHOURS

When the bars and nightclubs close for the evening, and you don't want the night to end – after all, you are in the "Entertainment Capital of the World," what are your options? If you are a diehard partier and hate hearing "last call," Vegas has you covered with an after-hours club. Most people head to Terrace Afterhours at the world-famous Larry Flynt's Hustler's Gentleman's Club.

Terrace Afterhours is not a strip club, but it's situated on the rooftop of one. Terrace Afterhours used to be a hidden gem for "locals," but over the years, it has evolved into a popular hangout for tourists looking to enjoy the local nightlife scene. With a capacity of 1200 people, Terrace Afterhours is an Instagram-worthy open-air rooftop experience.

For those of you who usually keep your Vegas Vacation confined to the Sin City Strip, now is your chance to see "Old Vegas." Perched on the second story of the famed Golden Nugget Hotel– the biggest and arguably the most popular hotel in Downtown Las Vegas – is Troy Liquor Bar, spanning 4,802 square feet of party space with rotating DJs spinning Thursday through Sunday. Expect a bit of Hip-Hop with an Open-Format music mix of Top 40s, Hip-Hop, and EDM.

This beautiful open-air Mardi Gras-style nightclub gives off a festive view with a Mardi Gras feel from above the Fremont Street Experience crowd. It is the only authentic nightclub on Fremont Street with VIP bottle service tables.

If you love Las Vegas nightlife and ice cream, you will love this concept! Brought to you by Corner Bar Management LLC – the creators of Commonwealth, The Laundry Room, Park on Fremont, Joy of Hot Dog, Discopussy, Excuse Moi, Cheapshot, Lucky Day, Oddwood, and Museum Fiasco, comes the innovative and imaginative We All Scream. Replacing Beauty Bar, this Downtown destination at 517 Fremont Street is billed as “a collision of candy-colored club and that will blend music, art, and ice cream.” It spans 10,000 square feet across two floors and can accommodate 1,000 partiers. It is three spaces in one, combining a 1950s-style old-fashioned ice cream parlor and bar where guests can order cocktails and scoops, plus a vibrant back alley outdoor patio with dancing under the stars, and a high-energy rooftop nightclub with a DJ, dance floor, a fantastic sound system, and 360-degree views. We All Scream is open on Thursday from 10 PM – 2 AM, Fridays and Saturdays from 10 PM – 3 AM, and Sundays from Noon – 6 PM.
